

MANITOBA-SASKATCHEWAN
Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church

God's Mission for us is to:

Develop a disciple-making culture to create healthy vibrant churches that actively connect the people in their communities to Jesus.

God's Vision for us is to:

1. Foster a United Prayer emphasis for all our churches to strengthen the urgency of our mission for God
2. Uplift the importance of the preaching of a Righteousness by Faith in all the churches
3. Implement a Total Member Involvement culture and community consciousness in all our churches
4. Area training for broad spectrum community service including health ministries
5. Develop small groups in every church as a major source of relationship building for the community to become integrated into the church family
6. Cultivate a worship and guest care consciousness that builds relationships between unchurched people and God
7. Evaluate our territory to strategically accelerate church and school planting initiatives
8. Double the number of churches in our mission territory, double attendance
9. Design Camp Meeting as a spiritually inspiring, discipleship equipping, and outreach event
10. The culture of our schools will be community and outreach focused equipping teachers, staff, and Adventist parents in the mission school paradigm
11. Reach children and youth conference-wide through Camp Whitesand
12. Based on our unique strengths, actively share Jesus and His soon coming with the Man-Sask Conference area through a multidimensional evangelistic outreach

Speakers

Tom L. Evans is an Associate Director for the North American Division Evangelism Institute located at Andrews University. His areas of expertise include: church planting, coaching, and Natural Church Development. During his leadership as church planting director in Texas, 114 new churches were planted over a period of 9 years. Tom is married to Mara (originally from Brazil). They have five children and are in the process of adopting two boys from an orphanage in Latvia. They also enjoy raising and showing golden retrievers.

Daniel Hall Born in Brooklyn New York, Daniel first received his call into ministry at the age of 20. Since then he has graduated from Oakwood University with a Bachelor of Arts in Theology and is now enrolled at Andrews University studying in their Master of Divinity program. In 2014 Daniel had the opportunity of working with a church plant in Virginia Beach which radically change his life. Since then he has been a part of two evangelistic campaign in New York and Atlanta Georgia.

Lisa Isensee has served as Church Planting Coordinator of the Wisconsin Conference since 2011. Previously Lisa served as Monroe church pastor and Church Planting Coordinator in Wisconsin Conference, summer camp director in Dakota Conference, and pastor at the Worthington church in Ohio Conference. She is married to Richard Isensee and they have five children, Anthony, Katherine, Elizabeth, Victoria, and Benjamin.

Victor Jaeger has been reaching people for the Lord and planting churches for more than 20 years. He loves church planting and evangelism. He worked for 14 years for a Japanese corporation in America before changing to a theology career. He worked in Texas for 12 years as full time church planter. In 2013-2014 Victor was a missionary at Adventist University UPeU in Lima, Peru, where he was the senior pastor for 2,900 members. Currently he pastors the Fort Wayne First Church in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Johnny Wong is a lay person who is the Elder of a church called Gateway Adventist Centre (GAC), a primarily youth SDA outreach centre located in the heart of Melbourne City. He has been involved in five urban church plants and is now coaching several churches in world-wide in urban evangelism. GAC has been blessed with close to 200 baptisms with a 90% retention rate through intentional discipleship. His passion is to see young people mobilized as an army of youth presenting the everlasting gospel.

Musical Guest

Brittany Harwood is from Red Deer, Alberta, Canada. In 2011, she graduated from Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska with a B.A. in Communications and a B.A. in French. When she is not working as the outside sales coordinator for a hotel, Brittany is a freelance author and has been published in the Adventist Review, Insight magazine and the Canadian Adventist Messenger. She hopes that her music will be a blessing to those who listen.
