DUCT TAPE OR JESUS?

SASKATCHEWAN MEN'S WEEKEND GETAWAY

March 17&18, 2017
Radisson Hotel
405 20th St. E
Saskatoon Sask.

Our Speaker

Roy Ice has explored the rain forests of Panama, Australia, and Costa Rica, and has plunged into the freezing waters of Finland in December. He has been awarded two awards from the Gospel Music Association as a member of the Christian band, Big Face Grace, has taught an English class to a Ukrainian Olympic Gold Medalist, and grade 12 Bible class to an American Double-Gold and Silver Medalist. He was mistaken for a major Hollywood producer for an entire day at Sony Picture Studios, and has climbed to the top of the Continental Divide.

Ice is the author of the book, 12 Things to Try While You're Still Mortal, which climbed to the #1 Bestseller spot on Amazon Kindle Religious Books in July of 2015. In August of 2010, he was nominated for the highest award granted by the Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators Guild for his novel, Treasure of Heaven. Ice's life has been thoroughly upgraded in every way by Christ's relentless grace, and through the testimony of God's Word he has helped people to have that same encounter with the Savior on every continent, with the exception of two; Africa & Antarctica. He still has not given up hope of taking the Good News to the Emperor Penguins of Antarctica, however. Since 1993, Ice has been a pastor, college chaplain and religion professor in Texas and California, and now serves as the Pastor for Resource Development at the Loma Linda University Church.

Men's Ministry

Men's ministry weekend getaways are intended for men 14 years and older.

This weekend is designed as a weekend for you to come and fellowship with other men from across Saskatchewan.

This year we have chosen What's Holding Your Life Together: Duct tape or Jesus? as our theme to help us focus on the permanent fix in life instead of the temporary fixes in life. All too often people are using the "duct tape" quick fix instead of reaching out to the only fix that will work - Jesus.

Some of the Highlights this week- end:

Inspiring Meetings

Time to fellowship

Personal time for a walk or visit

Pool with a water slide
